Author Carey V. Azzara's New Novel Kaitlyn's Mooring Hits Bookstores This Summer With East Coast Tour

Author Carey V. Azzara's new novel, Kaitlyn's Mooring, appears to be his most emotional and popular offering yet.

The story begins as college student Kaitlin Deveau leaves Boston University in a hurry when Henry, her grandfather, calls from Maine with devastating news. Bereft of hope, Kaitlin's son, Christopher, becomes a life preserver, keeping the family buoyant. Henry, now Chris's only male role model, teaches him lessons he uses throughout life. In the end, Chris and his adopted sister, Susan, must save their parents from the fate that took his grandparents—but the outcome is uncertain.

Vividly told against a beautiful New England landscape, this engrossing story deftly blends grief with joy, and loss with hope will make Kaitlyn's Mooring impossible to put down.

Azzara, a Boston area resident, is the author of three books, one a collection of short stories – Uncommon Heroes and Cars; a collection of novellas – Halley's Gift and Eight Other Extraordinary Tales; plus The Lottery Curse. His short stories have been published in several anthologies, and he authored Questionnaire Design for Business Research - a technical book on marketing research practices.

Kaitlyn's Mooring is published by Glass Spider Publishing. For more information about Kaitlyn's Mooring, upcoming events, and book tour schedule visit Azzara's Facebook Author Page.
